Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries Named One of the Best Workplaces in Ohio!

Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries is proud to announce that the organization has been singled out as one of the 2017 Best Workplaces in Ohio by the editors of Ohio Business Magazine. This is the second time in the past two years that Ohio Valley Goodwill has been recognized by Ohio Business Magazine for this distinction.

Goodwill was selected as a winner in the category of businesses with more than 200 employees. As noted by the magazine, a great workplace is a place where a worker feels valued and the long tenure of many of the organization's team members reflect that sense of being part of a larger mission in the community. Goodwill has been a fixture in the Greater Cincinnati business community for over a century and employs almost one thousand people through its 18 retail stores, donation centers and employment and training programs.

Ohio Valley Goodwill is particularly honored to be selected for recognition for the second year in a row by Ohio Business magazine. Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries thanks Ohio Business Magazine for this prestigious recognition as one of the 2017 Best Workplaces in Ohio.

Ohio Valley Goodwill is pleased to announce that the organization's Chief Financial Officer, Doug Ostholthoff, was honored with the "2017 CFO of the Year" award at the Cincinnati Business Courier's C-Suite event on Thursday, August 17th. The prestigious C-Suite Awards hosted by the Business Courier is designed to recognize top executives in Greater Cincinnati whose skills and leadership have helped shape success for their companies.

Doug Ostholthoff has been with Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries for more than 40 years and has helped Goodwill grow from a one million dollar enterprise to now a non-profit organization with more than a $41 million dollar operating budget. During the C-Suite awards ceremony, Doug's accomplishments were publicly noted and included the following: "As CFO of Ohio Valley Goodwill for the past 40 years, Doug Ostholthoff has been directly involved in all major decisions affecting the growth of the organization. Corporate growth has been managed through prudent investment, solid accounting practices and attentive management enabling the organization to become one of the largest and most successful nonprofits in the state of Ohio."

Doug has been an integral part of the organization's mission of helping thousands of people with disabilities and our nation's veterans to help get jobs in our community. "I am very proud of the important services that Goodwill provides and the reputation that we have worked hard to earn over the past 40 years in the Cincinnati business community," said Ostholthoff at the event ceremonies.

Ohio Valley Goodwill Launches Newly Re-designed User Friendly Website

Ohio Valley Goodwill is pleased to announce the formal launch of its newly re-designed corporate website at [www.cincinnati goodwill.org](http://www.cincinnati goodwill.org). The new website is designed to be mobile-friendly, have improved navigation and most importantly, to be accessible to all visitors. As an organization which serves more than 3500 people annually through its Employment and Training Center, Goodwill typically welcomes thousands of interested individuals to its corporate website each month. The newly re-designed site was a priority to make it as welcoming as possible and to share much needed information with website visitors.

Ohio Valley Goodwill worked hard in the re-design process to ensure that the website would be as easy as possible for visitors to find what they are looking for in terms of programs and services; shopping; donating; the Auto Auction as well as Industrial Services. "With an organization as large as Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries and our many different business lines, we wanted to design our website to provide visitors with the information they need and in an expedient fashion," said Doug Ostholthoff, CFO and Vice President of Administrative Services.

Ohio Valley Goodwill offers its main corporate website at [www.cincinnati goodwill.org](http://www.cincinnati goodwill.org) and four mini-sites accessible from the main site for the ease of interested visitors.

Shopping - www.goodwillbargains.com

Auto Auction - www.goodwillcars.com

Employment Resources - www.goodwillemploymentservices.com

Goodwill's Industrial Services - www.goodwillb2b.com

All of the mini-sites have been re-designed as well to ensure user-friendliness and enhanced accessibility.

The best part is all visitors can check out the newly re-designed websites and sign up for anything of interest to them including receiving a monthly store sales calendar; the latest Auto Auction list; or information about our Employment and Training Services. Please take a moment to check out the newly re-designed Goodwill websites today and let us know what you think! At Goodwill, we value our customer feedback and look forward to your next visit to [www.cincinnati goodwill.org](http://www.cincinnati goodwill.org).

Goodwill and Queen Bee Celebrate 2017 Half Marathon and Expo Success

Ohio Valley Goodwill was thrilled to again be a part of the annual Queen Bee Half Marathon held on the weekend of October 6th and 7th. As an exciting part of the marathon's Expo held at the Duke Convention Center, Goodwill once again offered its always popular Goodwill "Bee-Tique" which offered dozens of running and sports apparel for only $5. each at the Friday October 6th Expo! Also, the Goodwill "Selfie" photo booth was also a major attraction and this year drew dozens of Queen Bee's in training.

This year's Queen Bee followed a new route which ended with a big post-race celebration event at Lytle Park. More than 5500 athletes buzzed around the post-event party which is designed to be the crowning touch for all of the Queen Bee participants. As a Royal Sponsor of the event, Goodwill once again had the opportunity to take the stage and announce the winner of a luxurious spa pampering basket offered by the organization which was truly fit for a Queen. Entrants receive a chance to win when they make a donation to Goodwill during the Queen Bee weekend event and the winner is always selected at the post-race party.

As a Royal Sponsor of the Queen Bee Half Marathon event, Ohio Valley Goodwill is pleased to support this unique celebration which honors women and promotes the power of community. Goodwill is proud of being a sponsor and supporter of the 4th annual Queen Bee Half Marathon," said Sharon Hannon, Marketing Manager and event coordinator.

Goodwill thanks everyone for their involvement in this year's successful Queen Bee Half Marathon and looks forward to next year's fall event.

Your Holiday Giving Goes A Long Way to Help Goodwill!

At this time of the year, we always like to suggest to our friends and supporters that holiday giving to Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries goes a long way to help Goodwill's mission throughout the year. This year, why not put Ohio Valley Goodwill Industries on your holiday giving list! A contribution of any size will assist Goodwill with its very important mission of helping to serve the vocational and job support needs of men and women with disabilities and our nation's veterans. You can be sure that a monetary contribution of any size will go directly to support the programs and services for the people that Ohio Valley Goodwill serves.

Don't forget that during this time of giving, Goodwill needs your donations of clothing, shoes, household goods, furniture, small appliances, kitchen wares, and other usable items that help to fill our stores for the upcoming winter months. When these donations are sold in Greater Cincinnati Goodwill retail stores, the income that is generated from the sale of these items goes directly to support the more than 3,500 individuals that Goodwill serves each year. Your support is always appreciated and goes a long way to help all the people who are served by Ohio Valley Goodwill.
